

Sunrise Systems to implement Records Information Management System for Mercer County (NJ)

Metuchen, NJ (September, 2010) – Sunrise Systems, Inc. a leading edge IT Services and Solutions provider will be working with Mercer County (NJ) for the implementation of RecordsMine, a Records Information Management System.

As part of the implementation, Sunrise will assist Mercer County in the adoption of Records Management policies and procedures.

“We look forward to working with Mercer County on this significant project to help them increase staff productivity and provide valuable services to the internal users and constituents” said Noorali Sonawalla, president of Sunrise Systems, Inc.

About Sunrise Systems Inc.

Founded in 1990 in Metuchen, N.J., Sunrise Systems is a full-service information technology firm providing Systems Integration, Custom Software Development, Staff Augmentation and Professional Services to Fortune 500 companies and State and Local Government Agencies.

Sunrise has developed a number of solution offerings for Government Agencies including eRecording Portal, Public Record Search System, Online Appeal Filing System, Artemis and Records Information Management System (RecordsMine); and in use across multiple government agencies.